

Jan Peter van der Veer

General Overview

General Overview Jan Peter is a Senior Associate in RBB's Brussels and The Hague offices. He joined RBB in 2005, having worked in economic consultancy since 2000. Jan Peter holds an MA in Business Economics from Tilburg University and an MA in Transport Economics from the University of Leeds, both with distinction. He also obtained a Postgraduate Diploma in EC Competition Law from King's College in London.

Jan Peter is fluent in Dutch and English and also has a very good knowledge of French and German.

Experience

Jan Peter has a very broad experience on all aspects on competition policy and has worked on numerous cases before the European, Dutch and UK competition authorities. He has also advised clients on state aid and trade issues, as well as on many private litigation and arbitration cases related to competition law. Jan Peter also has extensive experience of competition and regulatory issues in liberalising industries. Recent high-profile cases include advising Google in the Microsoft browser case and assisting Oracle in the context of the Oracle/Sun merger.

Sector Experience

Jan Peter has a particularly strong experience in regulated industries where he worked on a wide range of regulatory and competition policy matters for public and private clients. Other sectors in which he has extensively worked include software, petrol retailing, fast moving consumer goods and manufacturing industries.
