

Yan Yu

General Overview

Yan Yu joined RBB Economics in 2006 and is now a senior associate with RBB Economics, currently based in the Melbourne office. She holds an MSc in Economics from the London School of Economics, specialized in industry organization. She is fluent in English and Chinese (Mandarin).

Experience

Yan has advised clients on antitrust matters before the Australian Competition & Consumer Commission, the European Commission and some national authorities, including the UK, the Netherlands and South Africa. She has a broad range of experiences, having advised clients on both horizontal aspects of mergers as well as in relation to alleged abuses of dominance, anti-competitive agreements.

Recently Yan has provided economic advice to BHP Billiton on its proposed acquisition of Rio Tinto. Previous cases that she worked on include notification of merger between European Directories and World Directories, the re-notification of Sony BMG merger, the abuse dominance allegation on South Africa Airline and Spires Hospital acquisition notification to the OFT.

Sector Experience

Yan has experiences in a wide range of sectors, including mining, music, health care, airlines, hospitality, and grocery retailing.
