

Richard Murgatroyd

General Overview

Richard Murgatroyd is a Senior Associate with RBB Economics and is based in the Johannesburg office. He holds an MSc in Economics from the London School of Economics, specialising in industrial organisation, and a first class honours degree in Economics from the University of Warwick. He joined RBB in 2004.

Experience

Richard has advised clients on antitrust matters before the European Commission and many national authorities, including the UK, Belgium, Finland, Australia, Singapore and South Africa. He has a broad range of experience, spanning both horizontal and vertical aspects of mergers, alleged abuses dominance, anti-competitive agreements, information exchange, private litigation and regulatory liberalisation. He has co-authored a number of internal compliance reports as well as RBB responses to Draft Guidelines issued by various competition authorities. He also has considerable experience in the application of quantitative techniques for antitrust purposes.

Recently Richard has provided economic advice to Alliance Boots, GAME Group plc, Masscash and NBTY. Previous clients include Ålô, AXE ECN, the FA Premier League, Global Radio, Peel Holdings, SAA and Whitbread.

Sector Experience

Richard has experience of a wide range of sectors including agricultural products, advertising, aviation, consumer electronics, electricity, financial services, groceries, health foods, hotels, leisure, media rights, minerals, motorway services, pharmaceutical retail, wholesale and manufacture, ports, telecommunications, tobacco and video games.
