

Jenny Burrage

General Overview

Jenny joined RBB Economics in 2003 and is a Senior Associate in the London office. She holds a BA in Economics from the University of Cambridge and an MSc in Economics for Regulation and Competition from City University, London.

Experience

Jenny has been involved in a number of competition law cases before the European Commission and national competition authorities in Ireland, Norway, Singapore, South Africa and the UK. Jenny has over 6 years' experience covering a wide range of competition issues, including unilateral and co-ordinated effects in European Phase II merger cases, as well as abuse of dominance investigations into predatory pricing, loyalty rebates, excessive pricing and essential facilities.

She has also provided economic advice in litigation cases, including the preparation of expert witness reports to estimate damages arising from exclusionary behaviour that infringed Article 82.

Key clients include BHP Billiton, Coca-Cola, Hitachi Global Storage Technologies, Merck, Nestlé, Sanofi-Aventis, Sasol, Scandinavian Airlines, Sony BMG and Western Digital.

Sector Experience

Jenny has worked on cases across a wide range of sectors including agriculture, aviation, chemicals, entertainment, healthcare, mining, pharmaceuticals, retailing, technology, transport and utilities.
