

Matthijs Visser

Partner, The Hague

Matthijs Visser has over 20 years of experience in competition economics and joined RBB in 2004. He is based in RBB's Dutch office in The Hague. Before working as a consulting economist, he has worked for the Dutch competition authority (ACM) and DG Competition of the European Commission. He publishes regularly on competition issues and is listed in Global Competition Review's International Who's Who of competition economists. Matthijs is a member of the board of the Dutch competition law association.

Matthijs has advised clients in competition matters under EU and national law. His case experience includes merger control procedures, abuse of dominance, cartels and State aid cases and follow-on damages litigation.

In addition, he has significant experience in advising clients on economic issues relating to sector specific regulation, including in the telecom and postal markets.

He has worked on cases in a large variety of markets including fast moving consumer goods, wholesaling and retailing, healthcare, pharmaceuticals, mobile and fixed telecom, broadcasting, post, energy, and maritime, rail and air transport.

Recent case experience

- T-Mobile/Tele2 NL
Phase II merger case (EU)
- Bergman Clinics/NL Healthcare Clinics
Phase II merger case (NL)
- Maersk Line/Hamburg Süd
Phase I merger case (EU and other)
- Valio
Predatory pricing and follow-on damages litigation (Finland)
- Kone
Cartel damages litigation (NL and Belgium)

The Hague

Lange Houtstraat 37-39
2511 CV The Hague
The Netherlands

T +31 70 302 3060
D +31 70 302 3062
E thehague@rbbecon.com
E matthijs.visser@rbbecon.com