Partner, London/Johannesburg

Richard Murgatroyd is a Partner with RBB Economics and is based in RBB's London and Johannesburg offices. He joined RBB in 2004 and has been a Partner since 2011. During this time Richard has led RBB Economics teams on wide range of competition law investigations and litigations in Africa and in Europe.

Richard has a broad range of experience, spanning both horizontal and non-horizontal aspects of mergers, exclusionary abuses of dominance, excessive pricing, vertical agreements, horizontal agreements and market investigations. He has advised clients on such matters before the European Commission, various European national authorities and many African national authorities.

Richard also has significant experience in the application of competition economics to private litigation, damages estimation and regulatory disputes. He has acted as an expert witness on more than 25 occasions, and given expert witness testimony under cross examination many times, before high courts, specialist tribunals and arbitration panels.

Richard has spoken widely on competition issues and has published journal articles on a range of topics, such as excessive pricing and merger assessment techniques. He is regularly identified as an expert in the field of competition economics in practitioner guides such as Who's Who Legal.

Richard holds a BSc (Hons) in Economics from the University of Warwick and an MSc in Economics from the London School of Economics.
