

Yan Yu

Partner, Melbourne

Yan Yu is a Partner at RBB Economics, based in Melbourne. Yan has close to 15 years' experience in competition economics. She has advised a wide range of competition matters in multiple jurisdictions. Yan is a member of the W@Competition Board and featured in Who's Who Legal.

Yan's experience spans all aspects of competition law, including mergers, abuse of dominance investigations, anti-competitive agreements, and antitrust litigation – and across all sectors of the economy.

Since 2010, Yan has advised many clients in China on Anti-Monopoly Law cases including assisting MOFCOM (prior to the establishment of SAMR) and international clients on a number of merger reviews, AML investigations, and private litigations in China.

In 2011-2013, Yan advised Oihoo360 on its litigation against Tencent in their abuse of dominance dispute in China, and she was the first Mandarin-speaking foreign economist to testify before the Supreme People's Court in China.

Yan is currently advising a number of international and leading Chinese companies for ongoing AML investigations and litigations in China.

Yan was also involved in a number of high profile competition cases before the European Commission and other national authorities, including in the UK, the Netherlands, South Africa, Australia, and Singapore.

Yan holds an MSc in Economics from the London School of Economics, with a specialisation in industry organization.

Yan is fluent in Chinese (Mandarin) and English.
